

TAMMANY DRIVE IN BROOKLYN PLANNED

Effort Will Be Made to Offset Mitchell's Revelations About Hylan.

NEW BLOW FOR LATTER

Mayor Gets Letter That Judge Belongs to Turn Verein in Eastern District.

Tammany has decided upon a hard drive in Brooklyn as the best expedient to offset the loss of strength that Mayor Mitchell's revelations about Judge Hylan's connections with the "peace" organizations have cost that candidate. The scheme admits the Mayor is cutting into their votes; the Fusion leaders go further, they go over their heads.

"The swing to Mitchell is growing every day," says Emory R. Buckner's latest estimate. "It is now clear that Murphy chose Hylan because he was weak; it now seems clear that Hylan picked him because he was satisfied with the Tammany machine. It was a fifty-fifty deal. If Hylan is elected Murphy will get City Hall and Hylan will get the Iron Cross. Hylan will get the title and a photograph of the Supreme Court Justice Daniel Cohan, who has been constantly hammered by Mayor Mitchell, Col. Roosevelt and other Fusion speakers as an associate of Jeremiah O'Leary and other men who have been mentioned in Government disclosures as pro-German plotters, finally broke his alliance last night and denied the accusations hurled at him by the Mayor and Col. Roosevelt.

Reveals Disloyalty Charge.

"In a most wanton and unjustifiable manner Mr. Mitchell has in his public speeches assailed me with a charge of disloyalty to my country. Most strongly do I resent such conduct and such a charge, and I assert that I am a better and more loyal American than he is, not only by choice, but through inheritance, for my father and grandfather were better Americans than were his father and grandfather.

"The man, I care not who he may be, who says that I have ever had a disloyal thought, not to speak of having uttered a disloyal word or done a disloyal act, says what is false and the truth is not in him.

More Evidence Against Hylan.

More proof that Judge Hylan was thoroughly aware that his name was being used by the Tammany organization and that he himself attended several such meetings presided over by Henry Weismann, was furnished the Mayor yesterday in a letter from Dr. I. Edward Herman, 485 Irving Avenue, Brooklyn.

"My motive in making this letter public," said the Mayor last night, "is twofold; first, to show that Judge Hylan is not telling the truth concerning his relations with Henry Weismann, and, second, to prove to Judge Hylan and Mr. Hearst that loyal Americans of German blood resent the use of their names by Hearst and Hylan to make the term 'German American' synonymous with disloyalty."

The letter of Dr. Herman is as follows: "It may add to your interest in the career of John F. Hylan to learn that at the time when Henry Weismann and others were attempting to launch a pro-German newspaper John F. Hylan was, as he no doubt is at the present time, a member of Brooklyn (E. D.) Turn Verein, of which Henry Weismann has been a leading light for many years. I frequently saw Mr. Hylan there.

"It was probably through my connection with the Verein that I received a prospectus of the new paper was sent to me with an invitation to subscribe stock in it. Under these circumstances it does not seem within the realm of possibility that Hylan will have the effrontery to claim that he was unaware of the connection of his name with that unpatriotic scheme."

Col. Roosevelt's Stand.

Col. Roosevelt, when asked yesterday if he supported the entire Fusion ticket as well as Mayor Mitchell, said: "Of course I am standing for the entire Fusion ticket. In addition to Mayor Mitchell there could not be finer candidates than Judge Ransom, Mr. Lyons, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Prendergast, Mr. Adamson and the candidates for Borough Presidents and the judgeships."

Dr. Abraham Jacoby, one of the most prominent physicians in the city, in a letter to the German Herald yesterday called upon the Jewish voters to support Mayor Mitchell.

"I have voted since 1860 and hope I have made no mistakes," said Dr. Jacoby. "That means I have always voted for the 'right man,' just like my neighbors have. This year we have so many majority candidates that it is not always possible to avoid making a mistake. There are Hylan, Bennett, Hillquit and a Prohibitionist too. There is Mitchell, for whom I shall vote so as to make no mistake. His eyes are always open and clear, and when I have looked into them they have remained open and clear and honest."

"Mitchell has wished to earn our confidence and he has succeeded in doing so. Elect Mitchell a second time. He has learned his business."

Theodore W. Myers, the banker and former Tammany Comptroller, who earned the name of the "honest Comptroller," announced his vote for Mayor Mitchell yesterday. Mr. Myers has been an organization Democrat all his life and was recently president of the National Democratic Club.

TELEPHONE TAPPED, CHARGES CORRIGAN

Judge Says Tammany Leaders Are Trying Intimidation.

Magistrate Joseph E. Corrigan, independent candidate for District Attorney, charged last night that not only his private telephone wire had been tapped, but also that Tammany district leaders throughout the city are intimidating business men who have declared for his candidacy.

"Last night I received word from the Police Department that my private telephone wire had been tapped," he said. "Now, there are only two men in this town who have any interest in tapping my telephone—one of them is Edward Swann and the other one is William Ransom. I do not know which one of them is responsible for this. I do know that whichever one of them is responsible committed a misdemeanor when he ordered it and connived at it, and I don't believe that the people of this city will countenance this brand of politics."

SOCIALISTS APPLAUD MITCHELL SPEAKERS

Straus and Morgenthau Score Hillquit and Hylan at Bronx Meeting.

Oscar S. Straus asked his audience at the Hunt's Point Palace, 1634 street and Southern Boulevard, The Bronx, last night, what they thought should be done with a candidate for Mayor of New York who would not aid this country by purchasing a Liberty bond at a time when young men from this country are on enemy soil and in need of every dollar the nation can send to their support. The audience was composed almost entirely of Socialists, and Mr. Straus was speaking undeniably of their candidate—Morris Hillquit.

The answer came from 7000, "Hang him."

Somewhat later Henry Morgenthau, late Ambassador to Turkey, referred to Hillquit but expressed reluctance to "say what is in my mind." The 7000 listeners again broke into applause, this time in an effort to hear the concealed opinion.

"Hillquit," said Mr. Morgenthau, "is doing the greatest harm to socialism any man has done in the last 150 years."

Both the speakers gave substantial reasons based on long experience for the life why the Tammany candidate Hylan also was unfitted for office.

HYLAN HAS A HIDE AND GO SEEK NIGHT

Upsets Schedule of 'Readings' at Nine Places Where He Was Expected.

ELUSIVE TO REPORTERS

Even His Bodyguard and Tammany Campaign Manager Are Kept Guessing.

For the fourth consecutive night Judge John F. Hylan, Tammany candidate for Mayor, played hide and go seek last night with his audiences and the newspapermen assigned to follow him on his campaign tour. He announced nine different halls in the Bay Ridge section of Brooklyn as places he would speak—or read—together with the time he would reach each hall, and then foraged out from his home, picking them at random.

The result was that the audiences that gathered at each hall either waited for him from early evening until nearly midnight or arrived at the hall to find he had been there and gone. And the newspapermen starting out from his headquarters at 50 East Forty-second street, and following the path of his printed itinerary, didn't find the Judge last night until 11 o'clock—at a place where he was scheduled to appear at 8.

"What's the idea, why doesn't he keep to his schedule?" a newspaperman asked Grover A. Whalen, Tammany's campaign manager.

"Oh, I don't know," said Whalen. "It's all up to the Judge. I don't understand it."

Even the policemen and detectives assigned to follow and safeguard the Judge seemed not to know what he would do next. When he came out of the hall one would ask another: "Where are we going now?" And looking dazed, they would pile into a pursuing touring car and await the next surprise.

The reason for the Judge's actions of the last four nights was not explained by anybody in authority, but it was intimated that the "Mitchell corruptionists" would misquote him. It wasn't Hillquit but expressed reluctance to "say what is in my mind."

The nomination of John V. McAvoy as Democratic candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court stands as the first result of the primary elections. His name will go on the ballots immediately. Justice Donnelly in the Supreme Court yesterday dismissed the application of Thomas B. Rutz for an order directing that a new primary be held, because of alleged frauds in the original one.

didn't appear at all. This was San-dolph Hall, Port Hamilton avenue and Forty-sixth street. Instead he appeared at Public School 174, which was not on his announced itinerary.

It is believed that he appeared at various periods of the night at all the following places, which were announced at his headquarters:

Arion Hall, Arion place and Broadway; the Washington Club, 241 Prospect place; Stengerbush Hall, Smith and Schermerhorn streets; Prospect Hall, Prospect avenue, between Fifth and Sixth streets; Fundolphin Hall, Port Hamilton avenue and Forty-sixth street; Firemen's Hall, Third and Eleventh avenues; Avon Beach Hall, Bath and Coney avenues; Ulmer Park Hall, Coney avenue and Twenty-fifth street, and at Stauch's Hall, Coney Island.

In the typewritten speech, which it is believed he read at all these places, Judge Hylan again derided the Gary school system; denounced Mayor Mitchell as a plutocrat and brought in the latest Tammany line of attack, the distribution of Republican pastor bulletins bearing Mayor Mitchell's name at a soldiers' camp. The recent indictment of the Mayor's intimate friends, "Reynolds, Groves, Bailey and O'Malley," for crimes committed last year and a defense of his connection with the pro-German society of the Friends of Peace finished out his arguments.

"Mr. Mitchell charges that I am not an American because at a time when this country was at peace with the world," he read, "and our President was working as the great apostle of peace to end the conflict between the warring nations of Europe, my name appeared among the list of honorary vice-presidents of a peace meeting at Madison Square Garden."

Judge Hylan said that some of the names of the Mayor's backers were also on the list. "Continuing," he declared: "I have told the people of this city, and I now repeat, that I never was a member of the Society of the Friends of Peace; that I never was connected with any of these organizations which have been pointed to by Mayor Mitchell as seditious."

Judge Hylan had much to read about taxes. He said he could show how a client of Mr. Mitchell had been granted a tax assessment reduction in the last year of $1,025,000.

"That client," he said, "is the Queensboro Corporation, which paid Mr. Mitchell, when President of the Board of Aldermen, a $5,000 fee for the 1909 job of drawing a mortgage. About the time he drew that mortgage Mr. Mitchell lobbied through the Board of Estimate, of which he was a member, an extension of the subway which was to be paid for by his client. It does not matter that Mr. Mitchell voted against his client's interest in order to keep his record clear, he obtained sufficient votes of other members of the board to put the job through."

McAvoy's Name on Ballot.

The nomination of John V. McAvoy as Democratic candidate for Justice of the Supreme Court stands as the first result of the primary elections. His name will go on the ballots immediately. Justice Donnelly in the Supreme Court yesterday dismissed the application of Thomas B. Rutz for an order directing that a new primary be held, because of alleged frauds in the original one.

AMERICA TO GIVE MARNE MONUMENT

Committee Busy on Plans to Commemorate Victory on French Soil.

As a token of the admiration of the American people for the French nation a movement is under way to give France a monument to commemorate the victory of the Marne. The monument will be designed and executed by Frederick MacMonnies, the distinguished American sculptor.

A committee is being formed to carry out this plan. Members of this committee include: Thomas W. Lamont, chairman; former Ambassadors Robert Bacon and Myron T. Herrick, James Stillman, George F. Baker, W. K. Vanderbilt, Nicholas Murray Butler, Henry W. Cannon, Paul D. Cravath, John Ridgely Carter, W. H. Crocker, John H. Finley, Charles L. Freer, Frederic R. Coudert, A. Lawrence Lowell, E. T. Stotesbury, James Brown, H. H. Harjes, Willard Straight, Clarence H. Mackay, Henry Walters, Ogden Armour, Thomas Hastings, John S. Sargent, John Otter, William W. P. Bonaparte, Henry Payne Whitney, Charles H. Sabin, Walter Gay, Edward Tuck, Walter Berry, James Hazen Hyde, Mrs. Philip M. Lydig, Gertrude Atherton, Mrs. William Astor, Charles W. Adams, William Adams Delano, Mrs. John L. Gardner and Mrs. Edith Wharton.

Mr. MacMonnies has made a sketch for the committee genuinely representative of the spirit of France at the Marne; a winged woman, nearly spent by the storm of battle and almost beaten down by overwhelming odds, throwing off the heavy weight of defeat by a supreme effort, raising the fallen flag of liberty.

Former Ambassador to France Robert Bacon upon viewing the sketch said, "Call it the Soul of France."

Thomas W. Lamont of J. P. Morgan & Co. in announcing the progress made in this plan, said that to avoid the possibility of encroaching upon relief work on contributions for the gift to France would be solicited until after the war is over. "But," he explained, "so many friends of France it has seemed altogether appropriate that the admiration of the American people for the French nation should be expressed in beautiful and enduring form. The battle of the Marne may prove to have been the greatest event in the world's history, many think the saving of civilization."

200 Plum Puddings Wanted.

Six hundred wounded soldiers in the American Military Hospital in Paris need Christmas gifts, and 200 plum puddings are wanted for the hospital's Christmas. The American Committee of the American Military Hospital, Mrs. Robert Bacon chairman, will receive gifts at 14 Wall street.

HYLAN DISLOYALTY 'SHOWN' BY MITCHELL

whom I was able to reach by telephone. I told Judge Hylan that I had this letterhead and that his name appeared among the officers named. I asked him if he had authorized the use of his name in this connection. Judge Hylan appeared somewhat disconcerted. I recall he hesitated perceptibly and said: "I am trying to remember. Now I think of it, someone approached me—I cannot remember whether he gave the name of this person or not—and asked me if I was a friend of peace. In a general way I am a friend of peace. I guess—no words to that effect. 'This is all I know of the matter.'"

My recollection of Judge Hylan's words may not be accurate, but that was their substance. I said then, "Judge, the use of your name as an officer of the society was without your knowledge or consent?" He said, "I told you I know about it." "Well, Judge, in that case, I should think you had better get after them and stop their use of your name in this way," he said. "Well, perhaps I had, or perhaps, evidently, of avoiding the logic of his additional connection with this second disloyal enterprise."

"But what does Judge Hylan say of his relations with the Printers and Publishers Association and their attempt to float a $2,000,000 disloyal pro-German newspaper? Not a word. He thought he could escape from his connection with the Friends of Peace by a lie. He has been caught and exposed in that attempt. He despairs, evidently, of avoiding the logic of his additional connection with this second disloyal enterprise."

BENNETT AIDED BY TROMBONE

He Visits City Hall and Demands Debate With Mitchell.

Accompanied by a slide trombone player and a stepladder platform, William M. Bennett appeared in front of the City Hall yesterday at noon and, after collecting a crowd of about 1,000 with the aid of his trombone player, opened up an attack on Mayor Mitchell and his administration.

Facing the City Hall, the Republican candidate loudly demanded that Mayor

Mitchell "come out and debate" with him. Mayor Mitchell was not in, but some one in the crowd yelled, "Come on out, Jack!" which raised a laugh. Mr. Bennett's speech was along the same lines he has followed during the campaign, attacking pretty nearly everything the Mitchell regime has done.

Today, at noon, he will appear before Tammany Hall, in Fourteenth street, and conduct a "burial" service for that aged institution. Mr. Bennett will preach a "funeral sermon" for John F. Hylan, the Tammany candidate, and turn the "remains" over to "Chief" Murphy.

"This War Will End When We Win"

declared War Secretary Baker last week, and almost on the same day, Lloyd George announced that he could "see no road to peace but in victory."

Without ignoring any of the shadows in the outlook, Allied observers are unanimous in their conviction that the Central Powers are cracking under the strain. In proof of this they point to the recent brilliantly successful French offensive on the Aisne front, when in one day's fighting General Petain's troops advanced two miles on a six-mile front, capturing 8,000 prisoners and 70 big guns; to the ceaseless methodical advance of the Ypres wedge by Haig's steam-roller tactics; to the heavy toll taken of Germany's naval forces by the Russian fleet in the Gulf of Riga battle, when fifteen German war-ships were put out of action; to the capture by the French of four super-Zeppelins in one day; to Germany's heavy withdrawal of troops from the Riga front to make possible an Austrian offensive against Italy; and to the ominous rumors of a growing spirit of mutiny in the German and Austrian fleets.

The leading article in this week's LITERARY DIGEST (November 3d), is a careful summing-up of the news from various quarters and its significance upon the outlook for peace through victory.

Low First Cost— Lower Upkeep

WE REO FOLK seldom talk price, save incidentally.

FOR THE REO PRODUCT is not designed nor made on a price basis.

WE NEVER HAVE succumbed to the temptation to meet a price competition or to build a car to come within a pre-determined figure.

OUR AMBITION has been to build the best—not the most—then set the lowest price possible, based on actual cost plus a small margin of profit.

NEVERTHELESS, it is a fact that this 1500 pound Reo is one of the lowest priced, high speed trucks on the market. Quality and equipment considered, it is the cheapest.

IN FACT YOU'LL HAVE TO PAY on the average, $400 more, to obtain a 3/4-ton, manufactured, truck of any reputation or that presumes to compete with the Reo.

WE ARE ENABLED to produce this quality truck and to sell it lower, because of the fact that it has been standard for longer; because of our superior manufacturing facilities; and finally because of our low selling cost.

THE OVER DEMAND for Reos that always has existed, results in a selling cost so low, it is the marvel and the envy of the industry.

AND THIS TRUCK IS a manufactured product—not assembled from unrelated units.

IT IS REO MADE THROUGHOUT, which is to say, it represents the best in materials and workmanship.

50 PER CENT OVERSIZE in all vital parts—the Reo standard factor of safety—in axles, gears, driving shafts, bearings, frame, etc., is your guarantee of stability and dependability.

AND, FIRST COST ASIDE, we affirm there is no other 3/4-ton truck on earth that can show such low upkeep and operation cost year in and year out.

READ THAT AGAIN—it's a broad statement. Yet we believe it to be literally true else we would not sign the Reo name to it.

FACTORY CAPACITY is the only limit to the output of the Reo models—for the demand is, and always has been, vastly greater than the supply.

BUT OUR PLAN has been to make, not the most, but the best, and so we never make any more than we can make and make every Reo good.

SO THE ONLY WAY to be sure of a 3/4-ton Reo for reasonably early delivery, of present quality and at present price, is to place your order now. Delay is dangerous.
